Case No. 16CR0131-BAS

DEFERRED PROSECUTION
AGREEMENT AND STIPULATION TO EXCLUDE TIME

17
18 IT IS HEREBY AGREED between the plaintiff, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
19 through its counsel, Laura E. Duffy, United States Attorney, and Fred Sheppard, Valerie H.
20 Chu and Caroline P. Han, Assistant United States Attorneys, and defendant PRIME 21 HOLDINGS INTERNATIONAL, INC. (6), with the advice and consent of Michael
22 Attanasio, counsel for Defendant, as follows:

26 //

I

THE CHARGES

Defendant acknowledges that a grand jury has returned an indictment charging Defendant with conspiracy, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 371; honest services mail fraud, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1341 and 1346; violations of the Travel Act, Title 18, United States Code, Section 1952; and criminal forfeiture.

II

DEFERRAL OF PROSECUTION

It appearing that the interests of the United States, of Defendant, and the interests of justice, will be served by deferring prosecution of the charged offenses to allow Defendant to demonstrate its compliance with all relevant laws and regulations, and otherwise show its good conduct pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3161(h)(2), the parties agree that the United States will defer prosecution of Defendant for a period of time starting from the date of the filing of this agreement and concluding 18 months after the last of the sentencing hearings of co-defendants FERMIN IGLESIAS (1), MEDEX SOLUTIONS, INC. (5), or MERIDIAN MEDICAL RESOURCES d.b.a. Meridian Rehab Care (7) (the "Deferral Period"), provided Defendant complies with the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

The parties agree to the following terms and conditions:

1. Defendant shall not violate any California Labor Codes, California Penal Codes, federal health care fraud statutes, or any other applicable federal and state criminal statutes, including those prohibiting the payment of fees for the referral of health care services.
2. Defendant shall provide complete, truthful, and accurate information to the United States in connection with the United States' investigation of unlawful remuneration, health care fraud, mail fraud and wire fraud by Defendant's agents and representatives, pursuant to the Addendum to this Agreement, which is incorporated herein.

3. Defendant agrees that it will be jointly and severally liable with co-defendants MEDEX SOLUTIONS, INC. (5) and MERIDIAN MEDICAL RESOURCES, INC., d.b.a. Meridian Rehab Care (7), for any fine imposed by the Court as a result of those co-defendants' guilty pleas to federal conspiracy charges; Defendant further agrees that it will pay any portion of the fine still unpaid by the end of the Deferral Period.

If Defendant complies with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the United States agrees to dismiss the charges in the Indictment with prejudice at the conclusion of the Deferral Period. However, should Defendant fail to comply with the conditions of this Agreement, the United States shall proceed with prosecution as set forth in Section III below.

Defendant expressly waives all constitutional and statutory defenses to the reinstatement of any charges dismissed or not pursued as a result of this Agreement.

SPEEDY TRIAL

Defendant is aware of its right to a speedy trial on the charges. Defendant stipulates that the time period from date of the execution of this agreement until the conclusion of the Deferral Period is excludable time pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(2).

III

BREACH OF THE DEFERRED PROSECUTION AGREEMENT

Defendant acknowledges, understands and agrees that, in the event the United States determines, in its sole discretion, that Defendant (through its agents) has knowingly violated or failed to perform any of Defendant's obligations under this agreement, Defendant shall thereafter be subject to further prosecution of the charges against it.

Defendant admits, accepts, acknowledges and stipulates that the facts set forth in the Statement of Facts (attached as Exhibit A and incorporated herein), which Defendant signed with the advice and consent of its attorney, are true and accurate. Should the United

1 States pursue the prosecution that is deferred by this Agreement, Defendant agrees that it
2 will neither contest the admissibility of, nor contradict the facts as stated in, the Statement
3 of Facts in any proceeding, including during trial, guilty plea or sentencing.

4 In the event that the United States determines that Defendant has breached this 5 Agreement, the United States agrees to provide Defendant with written notice of such 6 breach prior to instituting any prosecution resulting from such breach. Defendant shall,
7 within thirty (30) days of receipt of such notice, have the opportunity to respond to the 8 United States in writing to explain the nature and circumstances of such breach, as well as 9 the actions Defendant has taken to address and remediate the situation, which explanation
10 the United States shall consider in determining whether to institute a prosecution.

11 If the United States initiates a prosecution of Defendant: (a) all statements made by 12 or on behalf of Defendant to the United States or to the Court, including the statements in 13 the Statement of Facts, and any leads derived from such statements, shall be admissible in 14 evidence in any and all criminal proceedings brought by the United States against 15 Defendant for the conduct described in the Statement of Facts; and (b) Defendant shall not 16 assert any claim under the United States Constitution, Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure
17 11(f), Federal Rule of Evidence 410, or any other federal rule, that statements by or on 18 behalf of Defendant to the United States before, contemporaneous with, or subsequent to 19 this Agreement, and any leads derived therefrom, should be suppressed.

20 Defendant acknowledges that the United States has made no representations,
21 assurances, or promises concerning what sentence may be imposed by the Court if 22 Defendant breaches this Agreement and this matter proceeds to judgment and sentencing.
23 At any such future sentencing hearing, the United States may advocate for any lawful
24 sentence. Defendant acknowledges that any such sentence is solely within the discretion
25 of the Court and that nothing in this Agreement binds or restricts the Court in the exercise
26 of such discretion.

27 Defendant agrees that any statute of limitations relating to the charges is tolled as of 28 the date of this Deferred Prosecution Agreement. Defendant also agrees to waive any double jeopardy defense to such charges.

IV

AGREEMENT LIMITED TO U.S. ATTORNEY'S OFFICE
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

This agreement is limited to the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of California, and cannot bind any other federal, state or local prosecuting, administrative, or regulatory authorities, although the United States will bring this plea agreement to the attention of other authorities if requested by Defendant.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement embodies the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes any other agreement, written or oral.

VI

MODIFICATION OF AGREEMENT MUST BE IN WRITING

No modification of this agreement shall be effective unless in writing signed by all parties.

CERTIFICATE OF CORPORATE RESOLUTION

WHEREAS PRIME HOLDINGS INTERNATIONAL, INC. has been engaged in discussions with the United States Attorney's Office in the Southern District of California ("USAO") regarding the USAO's investigation into alleged kickbacks paid in exchange for patient referrals by PRIME HOLDINGS INTERNATIONAL, INC.;

WHEREAS, in order to resolve such discussions, it is proposed that PRIME HOLDINGS INTERNATIONAL, INC. enter into a certain agreement with the USAO; and

PRIME HOLDINGS INTERNATIONAL, INC.'s outside counsel, Michael Attanasio, has advised the Board of Directors of PRIME HOLDINGS INTERNATIONAL, INC. of its rights, possible defenses, and the consequences of entering into such agreement with the USAO.

Therefore, the Board of Directors of PRIME HOLDINGS INTERNATIONAL, INC. has RESOLVED that:

1. The Chief Executive Officer of PRIME HOLDINGS INTERNATIONAL, INC., FERMIN IGLESIAS, is hereby authorized, empowered and directed, on behalf of PRIME HOLDINGS INTERNATIONAL, INC. to execute the Deferred Prosecution Agreement substantially in such form as reviewed by this Board of Directors at this meeting with such changes as Mr. Iglesias may approve;

1 2. Mr. Iglesias is hereby authorized, empowered, and directed to take any and all
2 actions as may be necessary or appropriate and to approve the forms, terms,
3 or provisions or any agreement or other documents as may be necessary or 4 appropriate, to carry out and effectuate the purpose and intent of the foregoing 5 resolutions; and

8 3. All of the actions of Mr. Iglesias, which actions would have been authorized 9 by the foregoing resolutions except that such actions were taken prior to the 10 adoption of such resolutions, are hereby severally ratified, confirmed,
11 approved, and adopted as actions on behalf of PRIME HOLDINGS
12 INTERNATIONAL, INC.

EXHIBIT ASTATEMENT OF FACTS

The following Statement of Facts is incorporated by reference as part of the Deferred Prosecution Agreement between the United States and Defendant.

Defendant admits, accepts, and acknowledges that the following information is true and accurate:

1. Defendant acknowledges and admits that a corporation is responsible for the acts of its agents or employees, done within the scope of their authority. Additionally, the acts of a corporation's agent or employee are within the scope of his or her authority if those acts are done on the corporation's behalf or for its benefit in the performance of the agent's general duties.
2. Carlos Arguello and co-defendant Fermin Iglesias ("Iglesias") recruited and/or facilitated the recruitment of Workers' Compensation applicants ("applicants") for legal and medical services in the Southern District of California and elsewhere.
3. The California Workers' Compensation System ("CWCS") required that employers in California provide workers' compensation benefits to their employees for qualifying injuries sustained in the course of their employment. The CWCS required claims administrators to authorize and pay for medical care which was "reasonably required to cure or relieve the injured worker from the effects of his or her injury," and included medical, surgical, chiropractic, and pharmaceuticals. CWCS insurers were private plans, affecting commerce, under which medical benefits, items and services were provided to individuals, and therefore were "health care benefit programs" under 18 U.S.C. § 24(b).

- 1 4. From at least 2013 through at least May 2015, within the Southern
2 District of California and elsewhere, Defendants Iglesias, MedEx,
3 Prime Holdings International, Inc., Meridian, Carlos Arguello,
4 Miguel Morales, and Providence Scheduling, Inc., did knowingly
5 and intentionally conspire with and others to: commit Honest
6 Services Mail Fraud, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1341 and 1346,
7 and Health Care Fraud, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1347.
- 8 5. A purpose of the conspiracy was to fraudulently obtain money
9 from CWCS insurers by submitting claims for medical goods and 10 services that were secured through an unlawful cross-referral
11 scheme in which defendants supplied patients to doctors and 12 required the doctors to refer those patients to certain providers of 13 ancillary medical goods and services, and the defendants received 14 money from the providers or from healthcare insurers as part of 15 the scheme, in violation of the doctors' fiduciary duty to their 16 patients, and concealing from insurers and patients the bribes and 17 kickbacks that rendered the claims unpayable under California
18 law.
- 19 6. It was a part of the conspiracy that Iglesias, MedEx, Prime 20 Holdings International, Inc., Meridian, Carlos Arguello, Miguel
21 Morales, and Providence Scheduling, knowing that the payment
22 of bribes and kickbacks in the form of a cross-referral scheme was 23 unlawful, offered to refer applicants wanting medical care to 24 certain doctors, in exchange for agreement by those doctors to 25 refer such applicants for goods and services to certain co-
26 conspirators.
- 27 7. It was a part of the conspiracy that Iglesias, Carlos Arguello,
28 Miguel Morales, and Providence Scheduling, knowing that the

1 payment of bribes and kickbacks in the form of a cross-referral
2 scheme was unlawful, assigned a "value" to certain ancillary
3 procedures, such as $30-50 per MRI referral, and informed the 4 doctors of those values.

5 8. It was a part of the conspiracy that Iglesias, Carlos Arguello, and 6 Miguel Morales set a quota for the "value" of services the doctors
7 were expected to prescribe for each applicant sent to them by 8 Providence Scheduling.

9 9. If a doctor fell behind in meeting the quota, it was a part of the 10 conspiracy that Iglesias, Carlos Arguello, Miguel Morales and 11 Providence Scheduling ceased to assign applicants to those 12 doctors until they agreed to make up for the shortfall in some 13 manner.

14 10. It was a part of the conspiracy that Iglesias, Carlos Arguello,
15 Miguel Morales, and Providence Scheduling only gave doctors
16 "credit" towards meeting their quotas if the doctors used MedEx
17 or other entities under the control of the defendants to schedule
18 MRIs and other ancillary services.

19 11. It was a part of the conspiracy that Defendants Iglesias, MedEx, 20 Prime Holdings International, Inc., as well as Carlos Arguello and 21 Miguel Morales, received kickbacks and bribes from providers of 22 diagnostic imaging services, including Dr. Ronald Grusd
23 (charged elsewhere) and others.

24 12. It was a part of the conspiracy that Iglesias, Prime Holdings
25 International, Inc., Meridian, Carlos Arguello and Miguel
26 Morales only gave doctors "credit" towards meeting their quotas
27 for Durable Medical Equipment ("DME") referrals if those 28 referrals were made to and filled by Meridian.

13. It was a part of the conspiracy that Iglesias, MedEx, Prime Holdings International, Inc., Meridian, Carlos Arguello, Miguel Morales, Providence Scheduling, and others obscured the true nature of their financial relationships in order to conceal their corrupt cross-referral scheme.
14. It was a part of the conspiracy that Iglesias, MedEx, Prime Holdings International, Inc., Meridian, Carlos Arguello, Miguel Morales, and Providence Scheduling discussed via telephone calls, text messages, emails, and in-person meetings the applicants who had been corruptly assigned to doctors to meet quotas for referrals to specific providers.
15. It was a part of the conspiracy that Iglesias, MedEx, Prime Holdings International, Inc., Meridian, Carlos Arguello, Miguel Morales, and Providence Scheduling utilized interstate facilities, including cellular telephones and email, in order to coordinate and promote the corrupt cross-referral scheme.
16. It was a part of the conspiracy that Iglesias, MedEx, Prime Holdings International, Inc., Meridian, Carlos Arguello, Miguel Morales, and Providence Scheduling used or caused to be used the mails and wires to send bills to insurers for DME provided to applicants procured via their corrupt cross-referral scheme.
17. It was a part of the conspiracy that Iglesias, MedEx, Prime Holdings International, Inc., Meridian, Carlos Arguello, Miguel Morales, and Providence Scheduling intended other providers, including Dr. Grusd and others, to use the mails and wires to bill insurers for procedures provided to applicants procured via their corrupt cross-referral scheme.

18. It was a part of the conspiracy that Iglesias, MedEx, Prime Holdings International, Inc., Meridian, Carlos Arguello, Miguel Morales, and Providence Scheduling, co-conspirator Dr. Grusd and others, concealed from insurers and patients the material fact that referrals were made because of bribes and kickbacks specifically prohibited by California law.
19. Iglesias, MedEx, Prime Holdings International, Inc., and Meridian further admit the truth of each paragraph in the introductory allegations, overt acts and manner and means sections of the indictment in this matter, filed January 21, 2016, or that the Government can prove each paragraph in that indictment beyond a reasonable doubt.
20. Iglesias, MedEx, Prime Holdings International, Inc., and Meridian further admit that Iglesias was acting in his role as an officer and executive of MedEx, Meridian and Prime Holdings International, Inc. when he directed that action be taken by one of those entities related to the corrupt cross-referral scheme related herein.
21. MedEx, Meridian and Prime Holdings International, Inc., acknowledge that a corporation is responsible for the acts of its agents or employees, done within the scope of their authority. MedEx, Meridian and Prime Holdings International, Inc., further acknowledge that the acts of a corporation's agent or employee are within the scope of his or her authority if those acts are done on the corporation's behalf or for its benefit in the performance of the agent's general duties. As to the scheme outlined in this factual basis and set forth in the indictment filed January 21, 2016, MedEx, Meridian and Prime Holdings International, Inc., admit

1 that Iglesias was acting within the scope of his employment and
2 for the benefit of MedEx, Meridian and Prime Holdings
3 International, Inc.

4 22. Iglesias, MedEx, Prime Holdings International, Inc., and 5 Meridian further admit that their scheme involved multiple
6 doctors, including but not limited to Dr. Steven Rigler, Dr. D.K.
7 and Dr. J.C.

8 23. In addition, Iglesias, MedEx, Prime Holdings International, Inc., 9 and Meridian agree and admit that the intended loss encompassed
10 by them and their conspirators' total criminal conduct exceeded
11 $9.5 million in claims to healthcare insurance providers. Iglesias,
12 MedEx, Prime Holdings International, Inc., and Meridian further
13 agree that the gross income derived from this corrupt cross-
14 referral scheme exceeded $5 million.

15 24. Over the course of the scheme, Iglesias received approximately 16 $1,005,000 from Medex Solutions, Medex Funding Solutions,
17 and Prime Holdings International, Inc., and Defendant agrees that 18 this amount is forfeitable as proceeds of Iglesias's unlawful 19 conduct.
