BEFORE THE DIRECTOR OF THE
DEPARTMENT OF CONSUMER AND BUSINESS SERVICES OF THE STATE OF OREGON

In the Matter of the Amendment of)	ORDER OF ADOPTION
OAR chapter 436, division 110:)	OF TEMPORARY RULES
Preferred Worker Program)	No. 10-050

The Director of the Department of Consumer and Business Services, under rulemaking authority in ORS 656.726(4), and in accordance with the procedure in ORS 183.335(5), temporarily amends OAR chapter 436, division 110.

EXPLANATION

These temporary rule amendments clarify time frames for requesting Preferred Worker Program (PWP) incentives.

To be eligible for premium exemption and claim cost reimbursement, the employer at injury must notify its insurer that it has hired a Preferred Worker within 90 days from the date of hire. However, OAR 436-110-0240 prescribes certain text that must be included in insurers' notices to employers regarding PWP benefits, and the text in the permanent rule includes: "You must request Preferred Worker Program assistance from the Workers' Compensation Division within 180 days of the worker's claim closure date." The wording of this notice has not made it clear that the 180-day time frame applies to other benefits but not to premium exemption and claim cost reimbursement. The revised notice in the temporary rules refers to the 90-day time frame. In addition, OAR 436-110-0290, which provides conditions for employer at injury use of the PWP, now states the 90-day time frame.

FINDINGS

Failure to act promptly will result in serious prejudice to the public interest.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

- (1) Temporary amendments to OAR Chapter 436, Division 110, Preferred Worker Program, are adopted on this 15th day of April 2010, to be effective April 15, 2010.
- (2) The attached Statement of Need and Justification is incorporated by reference.
- (3) The amended rules, the Certificate and Order for Filing, and the Statement of Need and Justification will be filed with the Secretary of State.
- (4) The amended rules, with marked revisions, will be filed with Legislative Counsel in accordance with ORS 183.715 within ten days after filing with the Secretary of State.

Dated this 15th day of April 2010.

- (d) The worker is authorized to work in the United States.

(3) A worker may not use Preferred Worker benefits for self-employment unless the injury that gave rise to the worker's eligibility for the Preferred Worker Program occurred in the course and scope of self-employment. (5) The division retains the right to reinstate Preferred Worker Program eligibility if eligibility was ended prematurely or in error, or the employer has reinstated or obtained workers' compensation insurance coverage.

436-110-0325 Premium Exemption General Provisions

(1) The purpose of Premium Exemption is to provide an incentive to employers to hire Preferred Workers.

DEPARTMENT OF CONSUMER AND BUSINESS SERVICES
WORKERS' COMPENSATION DIVISION
PREFERRED WORKER PROGRAM

(2) Premium Exemption releases an employer from paying workers' compensation insurance premiums and premium assessments on a Preferred Worker for three years from the date premium exemption started. While using Premium Exemption, the employer does not report, and the insurer cannot use, the Preferred Worker's payroll for the calculation of insurance premiums or premium assessments. However, the employer must report and pay workers' compensation employer assessments and withhold employee contributions as required by OAR 436-070. The employer must start paying insurance premiums and premium assessments when Premium Exemption ends.

(3) Premium Exemption cannot be used for regular employment unless the job is modified to accommodate the worker's injury-caused limitations.

(4) If within 90 days from the date of hire the employer-at-injury notifies the insurer they have hired a Preferred Worker, Premium Exemption starts on the date of hire.

(5) If the employer is not the employer-at-injury, the worker discloses Preferred Worker status to that employer, and the employer notifies the insurer within 90 days from the date of hire that they have hired a Preferred Worker, Premium Exemption starts on the date of hire.

(6) If an injured worker's eligibility for preferred worker status has not been determined as of the date of hire, the worker or the employer-at-injury who is reemploying the worker may request eligibility determination. The date the division determines the worker is eligible is the eligibility date and Premium Exemption starts on the eligibility date.

(7) If a worker covered under Premium Exemption incurs a compensable injury or occupational disease during the Premium Exemption period, the employer must notify its insurer of the injury and the worker's Preferred Worker status. The claim costs for the injury are reimbursed under OAR 436-110-0330.

436-110-0330 Claim Cost Reimbursement

(1) Claim Cost Reimbursement provides reimbursement to the insurer for claim costs when a Preferred Worker files a claim for injury or occupational disease while employed under Premium Exemption as follows:

(a) Reimbursements will be made for the life of the claim;

(b) Reimbursable claim costs include disability benefits, medical benefits, vocational costs in accordance with OAR 436-120-0720, Claim Disposition Agreements in accordance with ORS 656.236, Disputed Claim Settlements in accordance with ORS 656.289, stipulations, as well as attorney fees awarded the worker or the worker's beneficiaries, and administrative costs;

(d) The administrative cost factor to be applied to claim costs will be as published in

Bulletin 316; and

(e) The claim must not be used for ratemaking, individual employer rating, dividend calculations, or in any manner that would affect the employer's insurance premiums or premium assessments with the present or a future insurer. The insurer must be able to document that claim data will not affect the employer's rates or dividend.

(2) The insurer must request Claim Cost Reimbursement as follows:

(a) Requests for reimbursement must be made within one year of the end of the quarter within which payment was made;

(b) Quarterly reimbursement requests must be in the format the director prescribes by bulletin; and

(c) Reimbursement documentation must include, but is not limited to:

(A) Net amounts paid. "Net amounts" means the total compensation paid less any recoveries including, but not limited to, third party recovery or reimbursement from the Retroactive Program, Reopened Claims Program, or the fund;

(B) Payment certification statement; and

(C) Any other information the division deems necessary.

(3) Requests for reimbursement must not include:

(a) Claim costs for any injury that did not occur while the worker was employed with Premium Exemption;

(c) Costs incurred due to inaccurate, untimely, unreasonable, or improper processing of the claim;

(g) Reimbursable Employer-at-Injury Program costs.

(a) Reimbursement has been made for any of the items specified in section (3) of this rule;

(b) If claim acceptance as a new injury rather than an aggravation is questionable and the rationale for acceptance has not been reasonably documented;

(c) The separate payments of compensation have not been documented;

DEPARTMENT OF CONSUMER AND BUSINESS SERVICES
WORKERS' COMPENSATION DIVISION
PREFERRED WORKER PROGRAM

(d) The insurer included claim costs in any dividend or retrospective rating or experience rating calculations;

(e) The insurer is unable to provide applicable records relating to experience rating, retrospective rating, or dividend calculations at the time of audit or within 14 working days thereafter.

(5) If the conditions described in subsections (4)(a) through (e) of this rule are corrected and all other criteria of the rules are met, eligibility for reimbursement may be reinstated. If reimbursement eligibility is reinstated, any moneys previously reimbursed and then recovered will be reimbursed again according to these rules.

436-110-0335 Wage Subsidy General Provisions

Wage Subsidy provides an employer with partial reimbursement of a worker's gross wages for a specified period. Wage Subsidy benefits are subject to the following conditions:

(1) The effective date of a Wage Subsidy Agreement is mutually agreed to by the division, employer, and worker if applicable;

(2) A Wage Subsidy is limited to a duration of 183 calendar days and a monthly reimbursement rate of 50 percent, except for a worker with an exceptional disability as defined in OAR 436-110-0005(9). For a worker with an exceptional disability, the Wage Subsidy duration is limited to 365 calendar days and a monthly reimbursement rate of 75 percent;

DEPARTMENT OF CONSUMER AND BUSINESS SERVICES
WORKERS' COMPENSATION DIVISION
PREFERRED WORKER PROGRAM

(3) A Wage Subsidy Agreement may be interrupted once for reasonable cause and extended to complete the Wage Subsidy Agreement on a whole workday basis. Reasonable cause includes, but is not limited to, personal or family illness, death in the worker's family, pregnancy of the worker or worker's spouse, a compensable injury to the worker, participation in an Employer-at-Injury Program, or layoff. A layoff must be a minimum of 10 consecutive work days. A period of time during which the employer is without workers' compensation insurance coverage is not "reasonable cause," and no extension will be granted;

(4) A Preferred Worker's pay structure must be the same as the pay structure for other workers employed in similar jobs by the employer;

(5) Wages subject to reimbursement must be within the prevailing wage range for that occupation. The prevailing wage range is determined by the following method:

- (a) First, examine the wages paid by the employer for other workers doing the same job;
- (b) If no other workers are doing the same job, a labor market survey of the local labor market may be conducted; and
- (c) If the labor market survey does not support the wage rate requested, the division will determine the wage subject to reimbursement;

(6) Preferred Worker Program Wage Subsidies may not be combined with a wage subsidy for a training plan under OAR 436-120;

(7) A worker-activated and employer at injury-activated wage subsidy can not be used for the same job with the employer at injury;

(8) If the worker's employer changes during the Wage Subsidy Agreement period due to a sale of the business, incorporation, or merger, the agreement can be transferred to the new employer by an addendum to the agreement approved by the division as long as the worker's job remains the same and the new employer is eligible under OAR 436-110-0310(1);

(9) A completed and signed Wage Subsidy Reimbursement Request form must be submitted to the division with a copy of the worker's payroll records. The payroll record must state the dates (daily or weekly), hours, wage rate, and the worker's gross wage. Payroll records must be a legible copy and compiled in accordance with generally accepted accounting procedures; and

(10) All requests for reimbursement must be made within one year of the Wage Subsidy Agreement end date.

(11) Wage Subsidy cannot be used for "regular employment" as defined in OAR 436-110-0005(13) unless the job has been modified to overcome the worker's injury-caused permanent restrictions.

Moving expenses are limited to one use. Expenditure is limited to:

436-110-0350 Worksite Modification – General Provisions

(1) Worksite Modification means altering a worksite in Oregon, or available for inspection and modification in Oregon, by purchasing, modifying, or supplementing equipment, or changing the work process, to enable a worker to work within the limitations imposed by compensable injuries or occupational diseases. Worksite Modification may also include the means to protect modifications purchased by the Preferred Worker Program in an amount not to exceed $2,500.

(2) Conditions for the use of Worksite Modification assistance are as follows:

(a) Modifications will be provided to allow the worker to perform the job duties within the worker's injury-caused permanent limitations. In order to determine appropriate Worksite Modifications, the reemployment assistance consultants have discretion to use reports by a medical service provider specific to the worker, specific documented "best practices" described by a medical service provider or authority, and their own professional judgment and experience;

(b) A job analysis that includes the duties and physical demands of the job before and after modification may be required to show how the modification will overcome the worker's limitations. The job analysis may be submitted to the attending physician for approval before the modification is performed;

(c) Modifications are limited to a maximum of $25,000 for one job. A modification over $25,000 may be provided if the worker has an exceptional disability as defined in OAR 436-110-0005(9);

(d) Modifications not to exceed $1,000 may be provided that would reasonably be expected to prevent further injury or exacerbation of the worker's accepted condition. A reemployment assistance consultant will determine the appropriateness of this type of modification based upon his or her professional judgment and experience, reports by a medical service provider specific to the worker, or specific documented "best practices" described by a medical service provider or authority. Costs of the modification(s) are included in the calculation of the total Worksite Modification costs;

(e) Modifications are limited to $2,500 for on-the-job training under OAR 436-120 or other similar on-the-job training programs when the trainer is not the employer-at-injury. A modification will not be approved for any other type of training;

(f) Modifications limited to $2,500 may be provided to protect the items approved in the Worksite Modification Agreement from theft, or damage from the weather. Insurance policy premiums will not be paid;

(g) When a vehicle is being modified, the vehicle owner must provide proof of ownership and insurance coverage. The worker must have a valid driver license;

(h) Rented or leased vehicles and other equipment will not be modified;

DEPARTMENT OF CONSUMER AND BUSINESS SERVICES
WORKERS' COMPENSATION DIVISION
PREFERRED WORKER PROGRAM

(i) Modifications must be reasonable, practical, and feasible, as determined by the division.;

(j) When the division determines the appropriate form of modification and the worker or employer requests a form of modification equally appropriate but with a greater cost, upon division approval, funds equal to the cost of the form of modification identified by the division may be applied toward the cost of the modification desired by the worker or employer;

(k) A modification may include rental of tools, equipment, fixtures, or furnishings to determine the feasibility of a modification. It may also include consultative services necessary to determine the feasibility of a modification, or to recommend or design a Worksite Modification;

(l) Rental of Worksite Modification items and consultative services require division approval and are limited to a cost of up to $3,500 each. The cost for rental of Worksite Modification items and consultative services does not apply toward the total cost of a Worksite Modification;

(m) Modification equipment will become the property of the employer, worker, or worker leasing company's client on the "end date" of a Worksite Modification Agreement or when the worker's employment ends, whichever occurs first. The division will determine ownership of Worksite Modification equipment prior to approving an agreement and has the final authority to assign property;

(n) The division may request a physical capacities evaluation, work tolerance screening, or review of a job analysis to quantify the worker's injury-caused permanent limitations. The cost of temporary lodging, meals, public transportation, and use of a personal vehicle necessary for a worker to participate in one or more of these required activities will be reimbursed at the rate of reimbursement for State of Oregon classified employees as published in Bulletin 112. The cost of the services described in this subsection does not apply toward the total cost of a Worksite Modification;

(o) If the property provided for the modification is damaged, in need of repair, or lost, the division will not repair or replace the property;

(p) The employer must not dispose of the property provided for the modification or reassign it to another worker while the worker is employed in work for which the modification is necessary or prior to the end of the agreement without division and worker approval. Failure to repair or replace the property, or inappropriate disposal or reassignment of the property, may result in sanctions under OAR 436-110-0900; and

(q) The worker must not dispose of the property provided for the modification while employed in work for which the modification is necessary or prior to the end of the agreement without division approval. Failure to repair or replace the property, or inappropriate disposal of the property, may result in sanctions under OAR 436-110-0900.

(3) A worker, employer or their representative may request Worksite Modification assistance.

(4) The person or entity that purchased the item(s) may request reimbursement by submitting to the division proof of payment for the items purchased. Reimbursement will be made for only those items and costs approved and paid; and

(5) Costs of approved Worksite Modifications are paid by reimbursement, an Authorization for Payment, or by other instrument of payment approved by the director.

(6) The division will not purchase directly or otherwise assume responsibility for Worksite Modifications.

(7) Reimbursed costs will not be charged by the insurer to the employer as claims costs or by any other means.

(8) A division Worksite Modification Consultant will determine if competitive quotes are required.

RULE SUMMARY

These temporary rule amendments clarify time frames for requesting Preferred Worker Program (PWP) incentives.

To be eligible for premium exemption and claim cost reimbursement, the employer at injury must notify its insurer that it has hired a Preferred Worker within 90 days from the date of hire. However, OAR 436-110-0240 prescribes certain text that must be included in insurers' notices to employers regarding PWP benefits, and the text in the permanent rule includes: "You must request Preferred Worker Program assistance from the Workers' Compensation Division within 180 days of the worker's claim closure date." The wording of this notice has not made it clear that the 180-day time frame applies to other benefits but not to premium exemption and claim cost reimbursement. The revised notice in the temporary rules refers to the 90-day time frame. In addition, OAR 436-110-0290, which provides conditions for employer at injury use of the PWP, now states the 90-day time frame.

Need for the Temporary Rule(s): These temporary rules are needed to clarify time frames for requesting Preferred Worker Program incentives.

Documents Relied Upon, and where they are available:

Justification of Temporary Rule(s): Failure to act promptly will result in serious prejudice to the public interest or the interest of the parties concerned. Inconsistent time frames in OAR 436-110 could harm employers and the Preferred Workers they employ, by increasing the likelihood that employers will be unable to qualify for premium exemption and claim cost reimbursement. Employers that do not qualify for these programs must pay premiums on the Preferred Workers they hire, and they are liable for any injuries that occur. In some cases, employers may terminate the employment of Preferred Workers if their expectations about Preferred Worker Program incentives are not met.
